money is to go as appearance forfeit and as a side bet.

"Jimmy" Crawford, the Bakersfield boy whom Coffee is backing, is regarded as a coming champion by many who have seen him wrestle. In the wrestling fournament held recently in San Francisco, Crawford won the amateur championship of the coast in the middle weight division. Edde O'Connell, the Portland star, however, who has seen Crawford in action, is of the opinion that Crawford, while a first-class amateur, would stand no chance with a first-rate professional.

Yokel says he will be very glad to wrestle Crawford here, providing terms can be arranged. He declares that as will defend his title against any man of recognized ability who will come here and centest for it. Yokel says he will go to Bakersfield if he is able to secure a leave of absence from the Y. M. C. A. and the Bakersfield people offer him the proper inducements.
